

I received a degree in RadioTelevision and Film from the University of Texas. What I remember of the campaign laws is that public airwaves cannot be used to endorse a candidate unless equal time is given to the other side (excluding paid advertising).

A piece entitled "Stolen Honor" sounds as far removed from a "documentary" piece as the movie "Farenheit 9/11". Please do not let the Sinclair stations air "Stolen Honor" without granting equal (quality and quantity) time for Democratic response. I don't want my public airwaves used to promote Sinclair's (or anybody else's) political agenda.
